ENGLAND WILL AID FRANCE IN CASE OF ATTACK

Cannes Conference Practically Assures Englands Assistance.

Briand Goes to Paris to Meet Criticism of His Opponents.

Cannes, Jan. 11.—The British memorandum of the proposed Anglo-French pact, which was telegraphed textually to London, declares Great Britain makes the security of France a problem of her own and that she will be ready again to throw in her forces as in 1914, if French soil is attacked.

Premier Briand will leave Cannes for Paris at 3 o'clock this afternoon. It was announced this morning, not only to inform the French cabinet as to the status of the negotiations here but it is understood to meet and answer criticisms of certain groups of the opposition and to demand that the chamber of deputies support or reject him.

The principal differences between the premier and the opposition it is learned, are with regard to the new terms of payment by Germany adopted by the council's experts but not yet ratified by the full council. France under these terms would receive less than under previous arrangements, but a greater proportion in kind.

Representatives of the German government today were summoned before the allied reparations commission to explain Germany's inability to meet her January and February reparations payments.

Today the allied supreme council met to consider Germany's war reparations, much of the interest of the delegates was centered in Paris where the French cabinet was to hold a special session to consider the reparations position as the result of the decisions reached here. It is understood that considerable adverse criticism of Premier Briand has developed here in connection with the proposed Anglo-French defensive alliance.

Approval by the council last night of the plan for formation of an international financial corporation left the reparations question as the most important item left on the agenda.

The conferences with the German reparations delegation which was to arrive today, were expected to be brief. No delays will be granted for the purpose of conferring with Berlin, and advice from the German capital powers to act in the name of its government.

The final terms of reparations payments that the German delegation will be asked to accept are 750,000,000 gold marks and relations in kind to the value of 1,750,000,000 gold marks annually. France, finally renouncing any part of the 1,000,000,000 marks already paid, will get 1,125,000,000 marks of the payments in kind each year, the remainder going as follows: 240,000,000 to Italy; 100,000,000 to Great Britain; 125,000,000 to Belgium; 7,000,000 to Japan and the rest to other beneficiaries under the treaty.

Of the 720,000,000 gold marks payable in cash in 1922, Great Britain will get 159,000,000 of which she will loan 133,000,000 to France, the balance repayable from later cash payments by Germany to France. The rest will apply on Belgium's priority.

This division applies only to the present year, the balance being that to payment of interest on series A of the German bonds to the value of 1,000,000,000 gold marks now in the hands of the creditor nations. To secure payments of 519,000,000 marks to Belgium, 450,000,000 to Great Britain and 31,000,000 to Italy.

THREE C'S HIGHWAY TO BE FINISHED SOON

Wooster, O., Jan. 11.—Asserting that "We must have a heavy traffic road from Wooster to Columbus this year," and that "we cannot afford to be delayed by injunctions," State Highway Director Herrick last night stated that the gap in the "Three C's" highway from Wooster south would be completed without delay. He said the route would be west from Wooster to Jeromesville and Haysville and thence south to Louisville.

Shrove citizens had threatened injunction proceedings if the road were constructed south from Wooster without touching their village. Director Herrick said the route through Shrove is not logical because of grade crossings.

COLUMBUS BANK ROBBER IS HELD

Detectives Certain That Suspect in Jail at Portsmouth, Was One of Gang Which Robbed Steelton Bank.

Portsmouth, Jan. 11.—There is no longer any doubt, according to Detectives L. H. Einspanner, Elmer Pratt and Andy Leslie about Dorin Mershon a prisoner in the Scioto county jail and who assaulted sheriff Ricker several days ago, being implicated in the Steelton bank robbery in Columbus on Dec. 21, last when cashier William H. Todd was held up at the point of a gun and $7,700 was stolen.

According to the detectives the reason Mr. Todd did not recognize Mershon when he last Friday was that Mershon did not leave his machine and had it in readiness at the curb when the robbery was staged. Ernest Fanning, negro, who was arrested here with Mershon, took no part in the robbery, it was stated.

Mershon's confederates in the sensational robbery of the Columbus bank were a man known as "Slim" Allen and others of Columbus, and they have been missing from their usual haunts.

It is also learned that two women were with the men when the robbery was pulled off in and they are known, Columbus police say, by the names of "Betty" and "Two finger Helen."

Detectives Einspanner and Pratt stated last night that they have positive information that Allen was with Fanning and Mershon on their trip south, but that he did not divide the bank money until he threatened to kill Allen if he didn't. It is said Allen gave up only part of the money and then left Mershon and Fanning somewhere in the south. While Fanning insists that he does not know anything about the robbery, he admitted last night that he was told that Allen and he others staged it and made a clean getaway.

Detectives said the officials are sure that Mershon was in on the robbery and that the bank bandits escaped in his machine.

The Columbus police have a complete description of Allen and the two women, and arrests may be made at any time. The officials have learned that Mershon's statement that Allen has his automobile in custody. Mershon was paid for his receipt he has shown since being arrested.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Franklin National bank yesterday afternoon, Willis A. Robbins retired from the presidency of the institution and was succeeded by Warren T. Suter, who had served the bank as its cashier.

Mr. Suter and Mr. Franklin were associated with the old People's bank for years and for the past 15 or more years both have been connected with the Franklin National. Suter was auditor for the Newark Trust company. For several years Mr. Franklin has been assistant

IRISH CABINET HOLDS MEETING

Dublin, Jan. 11.—Measures to be taken toward setting up a new government in Ireland and for carrying out the terms of the Anglo-Irish treaty were considered by the cabinet of the Dail Eireann at a meeting held shortly after noon today in the mansion house. One of the first moves, it is understood will be the appointment of a commission to proceed to London and confer with the British government. It is regarded as likely that Dublin castle will be taken over from the English within the next few days.

The release of the political prisoners by Great Britain is expected in a day or two.

An official statement regarding the new government's program was expected to be issued this afternoon. Nothing has as yet transpired here regarding any plans the opponents of the treaty may be formulating.

Germans Refuse to Give Up Blueprints of Giant Ocean Liner--Yanks Draw 'Em

More than 200 architects and engineers are working on the Leviathan project for passenger service. The Germans refused to furnish the ship's plans for $1,000,000, so the draftsmen are working in the ship's famous winter garden making diagrams of wires, etc.

The work of the second day was much expedited by improved ways of handling the plans and approximately 300 completed claims were filed Tuesday. These with the 110 completed Monday represent much hard work on the part of those aiding the committee in the completion of the blanks and also much patient waiting on the part of the service men.

Chairman Sachs stated today that instructions had been received from the state headquarters to mail the completed claims in to Columbus in batches of 500 and the local committee, with more than 400 claims completed, will probably send the first claims from Licking county Wednesday afternoon. Claims, providing they are correct and approved, are to be paid by the state in the order they are received.

BURGLARS GET VARIED LOOT

The grocery store at 619 Hollender street was entered sometime last night by thieves who secured about $150 worth of goods and merchandise. The store is owned by G. W. Adams, colored. Adams did not discover his loss until about 3:30 this morning, a couple of hours after he had opened up the store. None of the locks appeared to have been tampered with and the locks on the windows were secure.

The entire store was in order and Adams had no suspicion of the theft until he noticed that he did not have as many articles as he should have. He then started to check up on his merchandise and discovered that cigars, stogies, scrap tobacco, canned goods, sugar, coffee, cats, pet toasts, lye, talcum powder, thread, pencils and other articles had been taken.

Adams called the police and officers Donnelly and Hunsbough investigated the affair this morning. Police believe that a key was used to gain entrance to the store as there was no evidence that force had been used to gain admission.

ARMY OFFICERS GIVE TESTIMONY AS TO HANGINGS

Camp Sherman Colonel Tells of One Execution At Gievres.

Illinois Doctor Declares He Heard of No Lynch By 16th Infantry.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Army officers were called in today by the senate committee investigating charges that American soldiers had been hanged in France to check up on testimony of former service men, as to alleged illegal executions.

Dr. H. H. Ross of Danville, Ill., a battalion surgeon, with the 16th infantry, declared he heard of no lynchings at Condrecourt and that he never heard of any hangings in the locality. Robert Harrison of Wilmington, N. C. has testified that he saw a Mexican lynched near Condrecourt, and that the body was taken to a hospital with rope marks around the neck.

Senator Watson presented to the committee an affidavit by J. A. McDonald, of Youngstown, Ohio, setting forth that he was at the Bassens prison in France when private Fitzsimmons was shot and killed by a sergeant Cooper or Kuppa of New Castle, Pa. McDonald said he was ready to testify in support of recent testimony to that effect by Edward D. Smith of San Antonio.

Details of the execution of a soldier at Gievres on June 20, 1919 were given by Colonel Charles J. Symonds of Camp Sherman, Ohio, who was in command there at the time. The gallows, he said, was arrested the night of May 19, the execution was secret and was not known generally until the next day. He saw no reason for making it public and he said he did not "commit at Gievres," he added, "I directed that no body should attend but a certain number of witnesses."

Colonel Symonds was shown a picture of gallows at Gievres submitted by a former service man. "It corresponds closely to the one I saw," he corrected there," he said.

Questions as to whether or not two negroes were lynched near Gievres, Colonel Symonds said he could not conceive of anything of the kind happening without a report of it reaching him.

A merry party, each guest lugging the family or an individual "white elephant" was entertained Tuesday evening at the Rotary club's "Rough White Elephant" review at the Masonic Temple.

It proved one of the most delightful events of the midwinter season. As each bit of apparel failed to suit the fancy of the reviewer, it was acquired by Dr. Clark Hatch, much to the amusement of the crowd.

The committee, making possible the success of the venture, were: president O. J. Barnes, and Clay Van Voorhis.

The "white elephants" were the dance favors, and included a variety of corkscrews, empty bottles of "Haig and Haig," sunbonnets and other antiquated wearing apparel. As the review progressed, the "white elephants" were piled up in a large pile. Following dinner a splendid dance program was arranged by the Green Imps orchestra of Granville.

A Bible Thought for Today.

CHRIST'S BLESSING.—Peace I leave with you, my peace.
I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.—John 14:27.

UNHATCHED CHICKENS.

The Republican leaders are putting out claims showing that they are going to reduce the expenditures of the government for the year ending in 1923, by $2,000,000,000. That is much like counting chickens before they are hatched. It is one thing to figure out what the government is going to cost, and another thing to run the government on any such amount.

The general sentiment of public officials will be against making these reductions. Every department will be disposed to feel that cutting down its funds must work against its efficiency and protect its taking up needed lines of work. So there will be powerful pressure brought to bear on Congress by department officials not to reduce the appropriations as suggested.

All kinds of political appeals and fee seeking bids will be worked to persuade the congressmen to keep the total up. The members will have their private schemes and projects for the benefit of the people in mind.
When they get through with all these pork barrel plans, the national budget will be likely to look very rich.

A great deal more must be done for the disabled soldiers. A policy of economy that denies justice to the men who gave up their health for their country will be a policy of shame. Public sentiment seems likely to demand adjusted compensation for the service men. The fellows who worked for $1 a day in the trenches and camps, while others were making money handily at home, can not be left without further help in these hard times.

When all these claims are taken care of, the prospective economy may have all disappeared into thin air. The administration should be given credit for whatever readjustment it works, but it is not entitled to credit for any that the future may produce. And often an apparent saving is not real, because a deficit has been incurred that the next congress has to make up.

A UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE.

A universal language should be adopted, was the report to the American Academy for the advancement of science by a committee of that body at the recent annual meeting. A number of universal languages have already been prepared, and some enthusiasts have learned them. But little has been accomplished to persuade ordinary people to use them.

National hostilities could be softened and business intercourse promoted if there was one language that the leading countries used. Yet the nations will not, for centuries at least, give up their own tongues, in which are written the history, traditions, and literature of their own race. About all that can be done at present is to encourage young people to study foreign languages. This form of knowledge is a help in business and it tends to make people broad minded.

A FREE FOR-ALL.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

The refusal of the state commuties to authorize a permanent convention in Ohio this year throws the fight for the Republican nomination widely open. Under it in dangers that had escaped detec-

I endeavor in vain to give my parishioners more cheerful ideas of religion, to teach them that God is not a jealous, childish, merciless tyrant, that he is best served by a regular train of good actions,—not by bad singing, ill composed prayers, and eternal apprehensions. But the luxury of false religion is to be unhappy.

And How They Did Look!

The skins are now quite short, but we Remember, love o' Pete; When all the girls we used to see Were from ABOUT TWO FEET.

When Criticism Is Frank.

Aunt Caline says—John Payne has just come home from being fished off at a musical as last nite Toby Shure came in a-looking kind of fished out and says he is splitting real carful in the general direction of the color bucket, "I just come from hearing 'Gotta Payne play,'" he says. "She played what she called a song without words," says he, "Huh!
Munda Payne says, which she was a setting there,
"You're lucky," says she. "She sung for me, she says,
"and I'd be dander near a song without words than a song without voice," says she.

Did You Know

That today, January 11, is the 16th anniversary of the birth of Alexander Hamilton? He was born in the West Indian Island of Nevis. When only eighteen he wrote a series of papers in defense of the rights of the American colonies, then beginning to be a subject of dispute between them and Great Britain. These papers attracted the notice and were at first attributed to the eminent statesman Jay. On the outbreak of the war Hamilton obtained a commission as captain of artillery and in 1777 was made aide-de-camp to Washington. He afterwards became one of the most eminent lawyers in New York and in 1782 was appointed deputy to the convention in Philadelphia where he had a most important share in drawing up the Constitution afterward adopted. In 1788 he was made Major-General of the United States Army and on the death of Washington succeeded to chief command. A political quarrel with Aaron Burr unhappily culminated in a duel from which Hamilton's death resulted the following day, July 12, 1804.

PLAN FOR 5000 AT SHERMAN

Former Army Camp Being Equipped With Modern Machinery.

Only Ordinary School Discipline Will Be Maintained.

(By FREDERIC G. JANIKIN.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11.—The opening of the United States Veterans' Vocational schools at Chillicothe, Ohio, formerly Camp Sherman, is the inauguration of a new plan in rehabilitating the disabled soldiers.

Formerly the business was distributed among various institutions. The veterans were taken out of these and placed in a new plan at Chillicothe.
The government will not take students of the vocational universities and colleges, but the veterans' bureau will take them and provide professional courses.

The school at Chillicothe is being rapidly equipped with modern laboratories and shops for classes in electrical engineering, steam-fitting, mechanical engineering, architecture, surveying, and other lines. The school will also have a large animal husbandry, dairy, and cream making departments, and similar lines.
The school will also have a large department of agriculture.

The closest attention will be paid to the health of the disabled veterans. A modern hospital will be maintained on the campus with an adequate medical and nursing staff.
Disabled men in some instances are subject to deterioration as a result of their condition. Consequently a rehabilitation program has been planned to take care of the men. Every accommodation has been made for the comfort of the student and his family.

Model cottages have been built and furnished for the veterans. The cottages will not be of the dormitory type in order to prevent a military appearance. The grounds will have the appearance of a typical college campus, rather than an army camp. The school will have a large department of agriculture.

Two of Old Cabinet ARE MEMBERS OF NEW

Of the men nominated by Arthur Griffith today to membership in the new Dail Eireann cabinet, two were members of the De Valera cabinet. These are Michael Collins and William T. Cosgrave, who retain their portfolios of finance and local government respectively. George Gavan Duffy and E. J. Duggan were members of the Sinn Feil cabinet who to London and signed the peace treaty. Duggan signed Griffith's bill in the foreign affairs postoffice, which had been held by Anthony MacDonagh, chief lieutenant of De Valera in opposing the treaty.

O'Higgins, as minister of economics, succeeds Robert C. Barton, one of the signers of the peace treaty.
Griffith was mentioned among the given under duress. He voted for the treaty but cast his vote Monday for De Valera on the question of the president's reelection.

NEW IRISH LEADER IS SINN FEIN FOUNDER

Arthur Griffith, elected Tuesday as president of the Dail Eireann was one of the founders of the Sinn Fein movement and has been among the foremost leaders directing its activities. He was formerly an advertiser in Dublin and later exalted the paper United Irishman, followed by the Sinn Fein and then the Nationalist.

In October, 1917, he was elected president of the Irish National assembly in the absence of Eamon De Valera in the United States.
Later in October, 1918, he was elected one of the permanent members of the assembly and president of the assembly. He was arrested in Dublin in November, 1920, and spent months in Mountjoy prison. During his imprisonment he issued a message to the Irish people regarding the conduct of the Sinn Fein organization. An attempt was made to rescue him from prison, but the armored car used for that purpose failed to carry out the plan.

The return of De Valera from America was attributed to Griffith's imprisonment as Mr. De Valera's return resumed the active direction of Sinn Fein affairs. Early in June last there were reports of a London conference in which Irish leaders would be invited to consult with members of the British cabinet.
Griffith was mentioned among the probable delegates. His release from prison followed on June 21, last.

Griffith accompanied De Valera to London in July when the extended series of conferences were opened.
Later, when the conference shifted to different points, Griffith was appointed chairman of the Sinn Fein mission. He was in London throughout October, November and December, carrying on the negotiations which culminated on December sixth last with the signing of the treaty between Great Britain and Ireland, which has now been approved by the British parliament and the Dail Eireann.

LID CLAMPED ON
BY UTICA MAYOR

All Gambling Devices are Ordered Removed By Edict of Mayor Carlisle —Glass Factory To Open.

(Special to The Advocate) When Mayor Carlisle issued his edict yesterday that all forms of gambling must be abolished at once, the lid was clamped upon the city. The gambling situation in Utica was the subject of investigation by the grand jury last week.
The mayor was visited in the tanks of the Licking Window Glass plant yesterday in Utica and will be ready to begin operation about February 1.
A number of the employees of the plant have gone to their homes in Pennsylvania and other places, but the mayor expects that they will return upon the completion of work at the factory.

William Hutton, wrestler, went to New York last night to wrestle an unknown there. A number of fans accompanied him on the trip.

A. A. Garrison left for a trip to Washington, D. C., Baltimore and other places, where he will visit different cities.

Miss J. W. Johns, aged 14 years, died Monday night at her home of pneumonia.

Miss Carr is confined to her home with the grip.

Miss Frances received word yesterday from her son, J. W. Piers, a son last night.

MRS. BROWN DIES
SUDDENLY AT HER HOME

Mrs. Mary S. Brown, widow of Dr.
F. S. Brown, died Tuesday evening at her home, 240 West Main street after a few hours illness. Mrs.
Brown was about the house in the morning but complained of not feeling well. Her physician was called during the day and at 3:30 she went to bed. During the evening her condition became worse and death came at 8 o'clock. It is thought that her death was due to pneumonia of the heart.

The deceased was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rice and had spent her entire life in Newark. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Surviving are one daughter Mrs.
David Watkins of the home, and one sister Mrs. Thomas M. Jones of East Main street, and other relatives.

day afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. Rev.

Our Boys and Girls

The simplest and least harmful way to teach baby's clothes is to first rinse them in cold water and wring them lightly, leaving them always with a good white soap and out in the sun or spread them out on grass in strong sunlight.

Repeat the process until the clothes are as white as you wish them. Give them a final rinsing and iron while they are fairly damp.
It is not well to add any bleach for clothes that a baby wears, as it might cause some irritation.

When a child grows older and there is a great deal of dirt on their clothes, a little borax or a tablespoon of peroxide may be added to the water.
Rinse with a few drops of bluing in the water and iron while slightly damp. Never let children's clothes dry entirely, if they do you must sprinkle them and iron while damp.
